

California Thrasher

Toxostoma redivivum

A long-tailed bird of the chaparral, the California Thrasher is found only in California and Baja California.

Keys to Identification

Adult Description

- Large, long-tailed Songbird
- Grayish-brown all over
- Long, down-curved bill
- Reddish-brown underside

Immature Description

Similar to adult, but generally duller, with less distinct features and fewer contrasts than in adult.

Cool Facts

The California Thrasher is the largest of the thrashers.

Measurements

Both Sexes

- Length - 12.6 inches
- Wingspan - 12.2 inches
- Weight - 2.8 - 3.3 ounces

