

Wilson's Warbler

Cardellina pusilla

A common warbler of willow thickets in the West and across Canada, the Wilson's Warbler is easily identified by its yellow underparts and black cap.

Keys to Identification

Adult Description

- Small songbird.
- Underparts entirely yellow.
- Back olive-green.
- Face yellow.
- Plain dark wings and tail.
- Male with black cap.

Immature Description

Similar to adult, but duller and with smaller or absent black cap

Measurements

Both Sexes

- Length - 3.9 - 4.7 inches
- Wingspan - 5.5 - 6.7 inches
- Weight - 0.2 - 0.4 ounces

